International Stereotactic Radiosurgical Society

The 2nd London Course
28th & 29th March 2019
Lord's Cricket Ground
ISRS Radiosurgery Conference

Thursday March 28th
Speakers and talks include:

Day 1 - Intracranial Day

09:00 – Registration

09:30 Session One
Mr Ian Sabin, Consultant Neurosurgeon
Medical Director, London Gamma Knife Unit
Milestones in Radiosurgery

Mr Ian Paddick, Consultant Physicist and President of International Stereotactic Radiosurgery Society
Development of ISRS guidelines for treatment
Predictors of local control and toxicity in SRS

11.00 – Coffee

11:30 Session Two
Professor Safa Al-Sarraj, Consultant Neuropathologist,
King’s College Hospital
Meningiomas, pathology and genetics

Mr Ian Sabin, Consultant Neurosurgeon
Medical Director, London Gamma Knife Unit
Long term outcomes of SRS for meningioma

Professor John Hopewell, Radiobiologist
University of Oxford
Radionecrosis, pathogenesis and volume effects

13:00 – Lunch
13:45 - Session Three
Mr Jeremy Rowe, Consultant Neurosurgeon, Sheffield Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
Arteriovenous malformations - The long-term results of radiosurgery

Mr Daniel Walsh, Consultant Neurosurgeon, King’s College Hospital
The role of surgery

15.00 – Coffee

15:30 Session Four
Mr Jeremy Rowe, Consultant Neurosurgeon, Sheffield Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
The long term risk of cancer after radiosurgery

Dr Crispin Hiley, Consultant Clinical Oncologist, UCL / UCLH
The interaction between radiosurgery and immunotherapy

Questions
17.00 – Close
ISRS Radiosurgery Conference

Friday March 29th
Speakers and talks include:

Day 2 - Extracranial Day

09:00 – Registration

09:30 Session One
Dr Amen Sibtain, Consultant Clinical Oncologist,
Barts Cancer Centre,
London SBRT for Spinal Metastases – The Evidence

Mr Christopher Dean, Barts Cancer Centre
SBRT for Stage I Lung Tumours – Does size really matter?

11.00 – Coffee

11:30 Session Two
Dr Crispin Hiley, Consultant Clinical Oncologist,
UCL / UCLH
Putting the “P” in SBRT – The Potential Benefits of Protons

Mr David Waller, Barts Cancer Centre, London
The Surgeons View on SBRT for Early Lung Cancers

13.00 – Lunch

13.45 Session Three
Dr K. Tipples, Barts Cancer Centre, London
SBRT in the Management of Early and Advanced Breast Cancer
09:30 Session One
Mr Andrew Robinson, The Cyberknife Centre, The Harley Street Clinic, London
Overcoming the “Re-Challenges” of Modern Life in Radiotherapy

Dr John Conibear, Barts Cancer Centre, London
The Optimal Management of Central and Ultra-Central Lung Tumours Utilising SBRT

15.00 – Coffee

15:30 Session Four
Dr Andrew Gaya, Consultant Clinical Oncologist, Guy’s & St Thomas’ Hospital, London
Future Technologies in the Delivery of SBRT

Dr Kent Yip, Consultant in Clinical Oncology, Ipswich Hospital,
Evidence Update from Recently Reported SBRT Studies - An update on studies presented at ASTRO, World Lung and ESTRO Asia

Dr A. Martin, Addenbrookes Hospital, Cambridge
An Update on the Prostate SBRT and in Particular The PACE Study

Questions
17.00 – Close